

Your doctor has prescribed medication to manage a health condition.

Even if you've already read medication information about Relpax[®] or heard about it from someone you know, it's important to get the facts from your doctor. That way, you'll get information that takes your overall health into account.

For your Relpax[®] prescription, here are some questions you may want to ask:

1. How will this medication help me?
2. How often should I take it?
3. How do I take this medication?
4. Are there any side effects?
5. How do I manage these side effects?
6. Are there any other important things I need to know about this medication?
7. Where can I get additional information about this medication?
8. Where can I get additional information about my health concern?

If there are other things you would like to ask your doctor, list them here:
